2024 FALL GUIDE

Welcome

I want to welcome you to PCPC. We know there's a lot in this Fall Guide, but we hope it's more than a menu, more than a flood of information. We want to shepherd you toward being a healthy member or participant in the life of our church.

As you consider where the Lord is calling you to connect, abide, and extend, our hope is that you will:

- Join us regularly in corporate worship for all ages on Sundays at 8:00 a.m. (Chapel), 9:30 a.m. & 11:00 a.m. (Sanctuary).
- Find a community that makes the big church smaller and helps you become more like Jesus (see the "Connect" section in this guide).
- Find a way to serve the Lord inside or outside the walls of the church (see the "Extend" section in this guide).

Some of our people get involved in more than one smaller community, and some find more than one way to serve. It is not our desire that you would do everything, but that the Lord would lead you to a few things that help you connect, abide, and extend. If you can only do one thing, we hope that you'll prioritize the joy of worshiping the Lord together on Sunday morning.

– Mark Davis, Senior Pastor

Connect to Christ

AND ONE ANOTHER

In John 15, Jesus gives us a beautiful vision of a healthy group of believers. Drawing from the rich biblical imagery of God's people being like a vineyard, Jesus reveals Himself as "the true vine," the one in whom true life is found (v. 1). He warns that apart from Him we are fruitless, helpless, and condemned (vv. 5-7). But He also promises that all who connect to Him by faith will be united to Him, bear fruit through Him, and experience fullness of joy (vv. 3-4, 11).

If we are connected to Jesus, the true vine, we are also immediately and intimately connected with every other believer as fellow branches (v. 5). For us as a church, this means the first and most foundational thing we do is to be God's means to connect people to Christ and His Church personally.

Abide in Christ

The most repeated word in John 15 is, "abide." Abide means to dwell, to live with. By grace through faith in Jesus Christ, we are inseparably united with Christ and called to a life-long journey of growing in Him. Christian formation cultivates an abiding life in Christ by participating in the work of God's free grace. Our hope for the people of Park Cities Presbyterian Church is that through their time in this community their lives will abide more deeply in Christ, so that their minds are filled with the truth and beauty of Christ, their hearts are captivated by the love of God, and their lives joyfully extend, in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, the transforming presence of the Kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ in Dallas and to the world.

Extend Christ

One of the great surprises of John 15 is that Jesus entrusts His mission as the vine to us as branches. Just as the Father appointed Him, so now Jesus has appointed us (vv. 15-16). This means extending His self-sacrificial love to one another (vv. 12-13, 17). And this means going out to proclaim that the Kingdom of God has come in Jesus Christ, and to pray that God would bear much fruit through us (vv. 15-16). For us as a church, this means the third and most far-reaching thing we do is to extend Christ.

BEHOLD THE LAMB - SERMON SERIES

This fall, we begin a year-long journey through the Gospel of John. We have entitled the sermon series "Behold the Lamb." We will soak in the Gospel account, meditating upon moments like the wedding in Cana, the seven I AM statements declared by Jesus, and the moment at the empty tomb where John looked inside and "saw and believed" that Jesus had risen (John 20:8). We encourage your faithfulness to worship with us each week and invite neighbors, family, and friends to join us. Each week's sermon will be posted on YouTube, Facebook, podcast, and pcpc.org for you to share with others (PCPC.ORG/RESOURCES).

WINTERGRACE 2025

Please be sure to save the date for our annual WinterGrace event the weekend of February 1-2, 2025. WinterGrace is an on-campus retreat for our whole congregation to be refreshed in God's grace through fellowship, learning, music, and worship. Our focus will be God's Grace in Christ Alone.
